

Agenda
RURAL HEALTH WORKS REGIONAL WORKSHOP
Brentwood, Tennessee
Wednesday, May 5, 2010
8:30 am to 3:30 pm

- I. Introductions – Bill Jolley and Gerald A. Doeksen
- II. Economic Impact Studies – Gerald A. Doeksen and Bill Jolley
  - Economic Impact of Health Sector – Holmes Co., FL
  - Economic Impact of Health Department and FQHC – Gulf Co., FL
  - Economic Impact of Rural Primary Care Physician
  - Economic Impact of Rural Hospital with Tax Impacts – Hamilton Co., IL
  - Economic Impact of Urban Hospital with Tax Impacts – Cecil Co., MD
  - Economic Impact of Medicaid on State Economy – OK
  - Economic Impact of Hospitals on State Economy – TN
  - Summary of Economic Impact Studies
- III. Theory of Input-Output Model – Gerald Doeksen
- IV. How to Prepare an Economic Impact Study – Cheryl St. Clair
- V. Community Health Engagement Process (RHW Approach) – Val Schott
  - Community involvement
  - How to use impact analysis
  - Community Health Engagement Process
  - Assessment
  - Output (Products)
- VI. Feasibility Studies – Gerald Doeksen and Cheryl St. Clair
  - Primary Care Physician
  - Emergency Medical Services
  - Kidney Dialysis Facility
  - Specialty Physicians
  - Overview of Feasibility Studies
- VII. “Mapping Applications that Supplement Rural Health Works” – Ann Peton
  - GIS 101 and state, regional, national mapping data resources
  - Mapping Physician Shortage Areas – One Example
  - Mapping and Analyzing Healthcare Workforce to Healthcare Facilities